Notes from the boss.....

I can tell all those supporters who were unable to get to Cardiff on Friday that the players gave their all and I can promise you that they will be giving their all tonight.

It hardly needs me to say it, but this is a vital game for us. We really wanted to get something out of Friday's game but just look at the table and you can see that a win tonight will blow the whole promotion business wide open again.

And you can all play a part in helping us achieve that. I've said countless times this season that we are all part of a team and that has never been more fitting than tonight.

If you, the supporters, can get behind the lads from start to finish—ignore the stray passes and the odd mistakes—the players are sure to respond.

They were desperately disappointed at Cardiff where they gave a committed display—it was another in the list of unfortunate experiences we've had away from home.

With your help tonight—even though Scunthorpe will provide the toughest possible opposition we'll maybe get our just rewards.

SCUNTHORPE UNITED

Tonight we welcome our promotion rivals, Scunthorpe, currently lying in 2nd place in Division Four. In this their final season at the old Show Ground before moving into a brand new stadium ready for next season.

On their travels this season they have recorded wins at Darlington 4-1, Hereford 3-2, Colchester 3-0, Tranmere 3-1, and Cardiff 1-0. Fourteen victories on their own soil have kept them firmly placed among the leading teams this season although the Wanderers were unlucky to only come away with a point back in September when a last minute penalty by Billy Russell denied us of three points.

Leading their goal scoring charts this season has been Andy Flounders with well over twenty goals this season, with vital contributions from Billy Russell 8, Steve Johnson 6 and David Harle 6. Scunthorpe still have important fixtures against Burnley, Swansea and Torquay in their quest for Third Division football next season.

Middle Row: B. Green, J. Talbot, D. Mountain, R. Huxford, A. Stevenson, P. Nicol, M. Atkin, J. Shaw, N. Dunnill, D. Young, P. McLoughlin.

Back Row: A. Birch, I. Richardson, D. Harle, W. Russell, A. Flounders, D. McLean, J. Broddle, P. Longden, T. Daws.

VISITORS PEN FILE

BILLY RUSSELL—Full Back. Born Glasgow 14.9.59. Previous Clubs: Everton, Glasgow Celtic, Doncaster Rovers. Former Everton apprentice who tried his luck with Celtic before joining Doncaster for the 1979/80 season. After six seasons at Belle Vue he joined Scunthorpe. He can also play in mid-field and possesses a powerful shot. Had played 321 League games by the end of last season.

PAUL LONGDEN—Full Back. Born Wakefield 28.9.62. Previous Club: Barnsley. Joined United in August, 1983 immediately gaining a regular place at right back. Missing from the first team the following season but established himself in the side at Left-back during 1985/6. A consistent performer, strong in the tackle.

RICHARD MONEY—Defender. Born Lowestoft 13.10.55. Previous Clubs: Fulham, Liverpool, Derby (on loan), Luton, Portsmouth. Originally began his league career with Scunthorpe, making 165 appearances before moving on to Fulham during 1977/78. Rejoined United in October, 1985. Had a 7 week spell as acting manager prior to Mick Buxton's appointment in April, 1987. Normally plays at the centre of defence but can also play at full back or in midfield.

TONY BROWN—Central Defender. Born Bradford 17.9.58. Previous Clubs: Leeds United and Doncaster Rovers. A newcomer to the Club having been signed in the close season from Doncaster where he spent three seasons. He didn't begin his football league career until joining Leeds in March 1983.

STEVE LISTER—Midfield. Born Doncaster 18.11.61. Previous Club: Doncaster Rovers. Joined United in the summer of 1985 after 228 league appearances for Doncaster. Has a good shot and likes to get forward as often as possible, which is proved by his 11 goals last season. Also performs well at the centre of defence and has been used as emergency striker.

ANDY FLOUNDERS—Forward. Born Hull 13.12.63. Previous Club: Hull City. Played well over 100 games for the Tigers, scoring more than 50 goals, before losing his place in the side last season. Signed by United last March to replace long-term injury victim Ian Richardson. Provided much needed support for Steve Johnson. Always alert to goal-scoring opportunities he scored 6 times from 15 appearances.

DAVID HILL—Midfield. Born Nottingham 6.6.66. Previous Clubs: none. Joined the Club as a youngster and made his debut during 1983/4. Has now made over 100 appearances. A natural competitor, enthusiastic, and quick into the tackle.

ANDY STEVENSON—Midfield. Born Scunthorpe 29.6.67. Progressed via the youth and reserve teams to make two substitute appearances for the senior side during 1985/6. Made his full debut last season but was troubled by injuries throughout the campaign.

TONY DAWS—Forward. Born Sheffield 10.9.66. Previous Clubs: Notts County and Sheffield United. Joined Scunthorpe during the summer after little opportunity at his two previous Clubs. A lightweight, but nimble and quick attacker who will provide competition for the first team regulars.

PAUL NICOL—Central defender. Born Scunthorpe 31.10.67. Played regularly for the Juniors and Reserves over the past two seasons and made his first team debut last term.

MATCH REPORT

MAKE OR BREAK TIME

Last weekend witnessed complete cancellation of every Barclays League fixture—but this time it wasn't the weather that intervened—it was part of the official Football League Centenary celebrations at Wembley Stadium. Despite the opinions of certain reporters of the press media that the whole event would be a flop and that the event would insight fan problems, to date there have been no reports of misbehaviour and maybe the press were correct in their 'flop' predictions but there has been one real winner and that is the game of football. Perhaps the passion of Bolton Wanderers being one of the founder members of the League has some special significance in the staging of the League celebrations.

Notts Forest were eventual winners of the trophy and the £60,000 cash reward after defeating Sheffield Wednesday in a penalty shoot-out; this gave Forest their solitary trophy for a spirited season. Only three days before they had to suffer their heaviest League defeat of the season at Anfield where Liverpool went nap in what legend Tom Finney described as the best footballing performance he had witnessed during his playing days—and since!

Our own League programme did however continue with a Friday evening venue at Cardiff with all to play for in the promotion hunt. By final whistle the odd goal had secured three vital points for the 'Bluebirds' which hoisted them into second spot. Phil Neal doesn't relish the thought of the end of season play-off's and every remaining game should be treated as a Cup Final starting with tonight's encounter with promotion rivals Scunthorpe.

Looking around the Leagues at this stage some issues have already been settled. Huddersfield go down to Division 3 and York will be competing in the basement next term. Newport look to be theoretically doomed to G.M. Vauxhall Conference League football next term and we could see the re-appearance of Lincoln City where excitement is building there for a quick return. They are currently attracting 4,000 spectators through the turnstiles who are repaying some of their hefty transfer investments.

From our own point of view, consistency over the five remaining games should see the beginning of the gradual climb back. If it's any incentive to the players there could be no less than four 'derby' games at Burnden next term and that in itself will wet the appetites of our loyal fans. In addition there's the prospect of entertaining our old rivals Wolves.

Of course it's all pie in the sky at the moment, but it can be made to happen.

PHIL STOCK B.A.(Hons), M.L.S.P., S.R.P.

When Phil joined the Club just a few weeks ago replacing Peter Nightingale as the Club's Physio it was a dream come true. "I jumped at the chance, it was an opportunity I couldn't miss."

Having played football through school, he joined Marine in the Northern Premier League and later played for Osset and Pontefract in the North East Counties League. "Right full-back or midfield was where I used to play, I suppose you could class me as a classy version of Robbie Savage" Phil stated, tongue in cheek.

Although a knee injury brought his playing days to a premature end, it stood him in good stead. "I've seen the game from both sides, from as a player and as a physio, so I know exactly what's going through the players mind." He trained at Pinderford Hospital which is situated in Wakefield and worked in the Health Service mainly rehabilitation centres and hospitals.

His love of football soon had him working at former Football League club Southport, now in the Northern Premier League, "I just liked getting involved and helping out." Last season he had a spell with close neighbours Oldham Athletic, where working with Ian Liversedge, the club's physio, taught him a lot.

Since he joined the Club he has been kept very busy with the injuries to Jeff Chandler, Dean Crombie and Steve Elliott and admits to taking quite a bit of stick from the players for the stiff fitness routines he has given them.

"When you are injured you train harder to return to full fitness, you've got to push hard for fitness", states Phil. Already Steve and Dean are back in the first team and Jeff is coming along nicely, getting a couple of reserve games under his belt.

In the short time that he has been with the Club, he has already been impressed with the supporters. "I think they are fantastic, the other week down at Orient they were brilliant, the way they got behind the team and in such numbers too." Phil is grateful that he has been welcomed by everybody at the Club and hopefully in the none too distant future is setting up a clinic for the needs of local players. In the meantime Phil has a very important fixture of his own coming up in June—he gets married to Gill his fiancée. All the best then for his forthcoming marriage and let us wish him well for his future at B.W.F.C.

FLASH BACK

5 YEARS AGO – 16th April, 1983.

Bolton brought an end to five consecutive defeats by taking a point from a goalless draw at promotion chasing Wolves. Both Andy Gray and Wayne Clarke went close for Wolves only to be denied by Jim McDonagh whilst Bolton's best effort came in the dying minutes from Ian Moores. Warren Joyce made his full League debut for the Wanderers whilst the club were hit when it was learned that captain, Paul Jones, would miss the rest of the season through injury.

10 YEARS AGO – 15th April, 1978.

Bolton's goal difference got a boost with a 3-0 win over Bristol Rovers at Burnden. Neil Whatmore opened the scoring in the 21st minute with his 20th goal of the season, when he headed home a Willie Morgan corner. Frank Worthington struck twice in the second half with his trusty left foot. Firstly in the 57th minute from another Morgan corner and then fourteen minutes from time Morgan again set up the third.

18th April, 1978. The Wanderers returned to the top of the Second Division with a 2-0 home win over Crystal Palace leaving them with two points from the last three games to be won for promotion to the First Division. The opening goal of a tense game didn't come until the 71st minute. A John Ritson cross found Frank Worthington who planted home a header from 12 yards out. Two minutes from time Neil Whatmore struck the second with a left foot volley to please most of the 23,980 crowd.

15 YEARS AGO – 13th April, 1973.

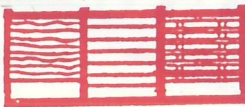

The Wanderers increased their lead at the top of the Third Division to five points with a 2-0 win at Shrewsbury Town. Barry Siddall, who was playing only his second Bolton game, didn't have a save to make as the Wanderers hit their goals in a three minute first half burst. John Byrom opened the scoring in the 36th minute, shooting home after a Stuart Lee shot had struck the bar, Garry Jones then rattled home a 35 yard shot that went in off the post.

16th April, 1973. Bolton kept their lead at the top with a 3-0 win over Halifax Town at Burnden thanks to a first half hat trick from Stuart Lee. Lee struck in the 7th, 11th, and 40th minutes to hit the first treble of his career and the only one by a Wanderer during the season.

RESERVES NEWS

BOLTON WANDERERS RESERVES	4
STOKE CITY RESERVES	0

30th March, 1988.

The reserves kept up their promotion push with their best victory of the season over fellow challengers Stoke City.

The Wanderers fielded the more experienced side but it was Stoke who came closest in the early stages when a low shot from David Preston was turned round the post by Gareth Gray. This turned out to be Stoke's only real effort of the evening.

Pressure eventually paid off for Bolton when, in the 31st minute, City 'keeper David Powell failed to hold a Chris Banks shot. Ian Stevens found his effort blocked, but Ian Callaghan was on hand to steer the ball home.

Dean Crombie celebrated his return after injury with his first goal for the club in the 38th minute with a cheeky chip from twenty yards that wrong footed the 'keeper.

Paul Hughes was unlucky not to get himself on the scoresheet when, early in the second half, he struck the bar with a shot and then had another effort disallowed for offside.

Andy May, playing his first full game in a Bolton shirt, set up the third goal for Ian Callaghan who rifled home a low 25 yarder.

Ian Stevens completed the scoring when he grabbed his 14th goal of the season a powerful shot that went into the net off the post. He almost grabbed another two minutes from time when he broke clear only to shoot against the bar.

Team: Gray, Hughes, Crombie, Banks, Neal, Winstanley, Henshaw, May, Elliott, Stevens, Callaghan. Subs O'Brien for Banks, Brown for Neal.

The next Central League game at Burnden is tomorrow evening when Wigan Athletic are the visitors, kick-off at 7.00 p.m. The Wanderers will be looking to complete the double having won 2-0 at Springfield Park last December.

Sometimes when you visit a ground, it looks as if time has stood still; well that's exactly what I thought at Exeter. Tucked away down a little side street you find St.James Park, the home of Exeter F.C., surrounded by rows of houses, with a couple of friendly pubs tucked in between. It was a place that the football hooligan hadn't put his mark on, no need for big fences to cage supporters in, the local police could watch the action on the field instead of the action off it.

Unfortunately from Exeter's point, there was a gate of less than 2,000, even though we probably took a quarter of that total. The highlight of the day, apart from J.T's 23rd goal of the season, was the Cornish Pasty I had at half-time, but at the end of the day that point could be priceless.

With only 2 more home matches left after tonight's six pointer with Scunthorpe it looks as if the race for promotion is going to go all the way to the very last day of the season. When the season began back in August everybody realised that it was not going to be easy, going to small, tight grounds and playing teams who obviously want to take the scalp of our famous old club. Apart from Wolves, over the last few weeks nobody has been able to break clear of the leading pack and it certainly looks as if eighty points is the target for automatic promotion.

It did amaze me last weekend that we did not have any players in the P.F.A. Fourth Division team. Surely we should have had at least one player represented from the consistently good play of the likes of Felgate, Came, Thompson and Thomas.

On closing this week, it's good to see Dean Crombie and Steve Elliott back in first team action and playing such an important part in our fine Easter victories over rivals Orient and Burnley.

PROMOTION CHASE VICTORY AT LEYTON ORIENT HELPS THE LOCAL BOYS

The fine 2-1 victory against Leyton Orient did more than earn three vital Barclays League points in our bid for promotion. It brings, in addition, a very useful prize for the Bolton Lads Club.

A panel of leading managers, chaired by Bobby Robson, and including tonight's rivals manager Mick Buxton, decided that the win on Easter Saturday at Brisbane Road was the best result achieved in the whole of that week's Barclays League and F.A. Cup Programme. And that brings us the Barclays Performance of the Week Award.

Boys' clubs in membership of their National Association are eligible to receive the award and we are happy to endorse the nomination of Bolton Lads Club. They are here to-day to receive the award—a cheque for £250 and a new set of football strip which they will wear for the presentation—from Mr Don Whiteley, Manager of the Business Centre at Barclays Bank, Bolton.

In addition Barclays will present a handsome silver salver to the football club as a permanent memento of the occasion.

"I am delighted to be able to present this Award," says Mr Whiteley. "Not only does the Award stimulate additional interest in results of clubs in all four divisions each week but it also helps the game at grass roots level. We are very happy to co-operate with the National Association of Boys' Clubs in this way."

Our sincere thanks from both Bolton Wanderers and the Lads Club to Barclays Bank for their interest and support.

NOTEBOOK

REFLECTIONS

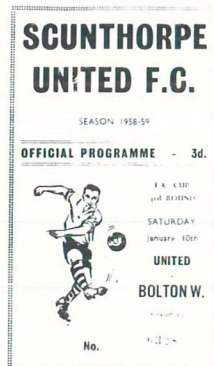

The Wanderers face Scunthorpe United today for only the sixth time in the Football League. The first encounter took place at Burnden in October 1972 when both clubs were in the Third Division. The Wanderers at the time were in 5th position whilst United were 21st but they became the first side that season to take a point from Burnden with a goalless draw resulting.

The following March Bolton made their first League visit to the Old Show Ground as leaders of the Division whilst the home side were rooted at the foot of the table having suffered seven consecutive defeats. Rod Fletcher put United in front in the 73rd minute and it appeared that a shock result was on the cards but with seven minutes remaining Garry Jones slotted home the equaliser for the Wanderers.

It wasn't until September 1983 that the clubs faced each other again when the Wanderers went down to a single goal defeat at Scunthorpe. The winning goal came ten minutes from time when Chris Cowling chipped Simon Farnworth from twenty yards out. Minutes later Bolton were denied a penalty when Steve Thompson was floored by Neil Pointon, who is now with Everton, but only a corner was awarded.

United made their last visit to Burnden in January 1984 and once again the result was goalless. Five days earlier United had put four goals past Leeds United in an F.A. Cup tie but for this game they were intent on putting up the shutters to take a point back over the Pennines in an attempt to stave off relegation.

Earlier this season the points were shared in an entertaining 1-1 draw at the Old Show Ground. Trevor Morgan headed home a Dave Sutton cross in the 9th minute to give Bolton a lead they held onto until the diving seconds. Then Dave Sutton hauled down striker Andy Flounders on the edge of the penalty area but the linesman indicated it was inside the area and Billy Russell converted the penalty kick.

GOLDEN OLDIES

Today we reproduce the cover of the only F.A. Cup tie played between the two sides which took place at the Old Show Ground in January 1959.

United were, at the time, in the Second Division whilst the Wanderers were in the top flight and had won the Cup the previous season and were therefore playing their first game in it's defence.

A crowd of 23,708 witnessed two Nat Lofthouse goals, one in each half, to earn the Wanderers a fourth round tie with Wolves.

JOY AT ORIENT

The Wanderers' tremendous comeback to win 2-1 at Leyton Orient was the first time that the club have faught from behind, to take points in a League game, since a similar result at Manchester United in April 1979.

It was also the club's first consecutive win in London for 13 years. The last visit to the capital produced a 2-1 win at Brentford in November 1986 whilst the last consecutive wins in the capital came in 1975 at Chelsea and Fulham.

OUT & ABOUT

BARCLAYS LEAGUE TROPHY DESIGN COMPETITION WINNERS

OVERALL WINNER:

A Cambridge schoolboy Luke Gifford (17 (age 17) of Cottenham Cambridgeshire, has won the prize of a lifetime: the first prize in the Barclays League Trophy Design Competition to design the trophy which will be presented to the Barclays League Champions on field at the end of the season. There was a total entry from students of 18 & under from all over England (plus Scotland, Poland and Nigeria) of almost 6,000 entries.

Luke, who produced his winning design as part of his portfolio for his A level Art course as a full-time student at Long Road Sixth Form College, Cambridge, will receive a portable video camera and VHS video recorder plus a visit to a Barclays League match to see his trophy being presented. He will also appear on ITV's Saint & Greavsie Show watching the final touches being applied to the making of his trophy in silver. He also wins for his college £2,000 worth of computer hardware and software.

Luke is a keen football enthusiast—starting by playing in goal at Cottenham School and going with his dad to Ipswich Town and Cambridge Utd. Like a large percentage of the massive entry he has stated a preference for Liverpool as his favourite team and Peter Beardsley as his favourite player.

AGE CATEGORY WINNERS:

Each will receive a 35mm camera, a visit to a selected Barclays League match and wins for his/her school £500 worth of sports equipment or computer equipment.

16—18 : Julia Ling (age 16) from Kirby-le-Soken, Essex.

12—15 : Adrian Hughes (age 14) from Moreton, The Wirral, Merseyside.

Under 12 : Alan Peacock (age 11) from Horncastle, Lincs.

RUNNERS-UP:

There were also fifty runners-up prizes (from all over the country) in each category.
